Wednesday, Sept. 5, 1906.

The voters of Newberry are trying to make a model "hubbie" out of Hub by keeping him at home. A splendid place for all "hubbies" of the "Hub" type.

Ansel and Lyon were easily the leaders in the first primary and will be the winners next Tuesday, if every man will only go to the polls and vote for the best interests of his state.

Bryan's home coming has been the occasion of a great demonstration for the next standard-bearer of the Democratic party. There has been nothing like it in the history of this country. It is proving no less the occasion of awe to Republicans than of inspiration and confidence to Democrats.

The decision of Mayor Roddey of Rock Hill not to fine negroes and others for petty gaming, while bucket shops are allowed in that town, places these institutions high up in the gambling class, just where they belong. The bucket shops must go for the financial and moral good of the people of this section.

If you are in favor of each county exercising the right of local self-government, go to the polls next Tuesday and vote for Ansel for governor. If you are opposed to graft and would cast a vote for a man who by his fearless discharge of a painful public duty has made it hot for the grafters, vote for Lyon for attorney general.

A vote for Ansel will be a vote for the right of each county to decide whether it shall have a dispensary or prohibition. A vote for Lyon will be a vote for a man who has made it so hot for grafters that thousands of dollars are being spent to accomplish his defeat. A vote for either will be a vote for a good man and a good measure; a vote for both will be a vote altogether right.

However much the second primary may be lacking in local interest in that the county offices in Fairfield were all filled at the first primary as were also most of the secondary state offices, no voter should fail to be at the polls next Tuesday. The two offices of governor and attorney general, for which the candidates are so divided as to represent the real issues in the campaign that is now ending, are yet to be filled. Now that favorite local candidates have been eliminated and the race has been narrowed down to men and measures, there should even be a larger vote at the second primary than at the first. In the primary next Tuesday, let every man do his duty, vote and that for the best men and best measures. Vote for Ansel and for Lyon.

There is no more sacred duty upon a man than that he exercise the right of suffrage and that he cast his vote fearlessly before men and for his country's welfare. To any who have been careless here to fore in the exercise of this blood-bought right or who are now saying that they are not interested in the primary to be held next Tuesday, we commend the following sentences from the welcome speech of Gov. Folk, to the great commoner on his return to America last week which magnify the duty of a man to vote against existing wrongs; no less than to take up arms in defense of his country: "We are now learning that they may be as much patriotism in giving one's time to the betterment of civic conditions and getting good men in to office as in baring one's breast to the bullets of a public enemy in time of war. The highest patriotism is the patriotism of service."

The Official Count.

The official count of the votes in the first primary was made by the county executive committee at its meeting Thursday and is published in full in another column. All the boxes were in with the exception of Feasterville and Mitford. The vote that had been phoned in from Feasterville was taken as the official vote, as there was no instance in which there could be a contest. The vote from Mitford did not come in till the next day. It appears in the tabulated returns. The results of the primary as published last week are not changed at all by the official count. Messrs Dixon, Leitner and T. S. Brice will represent Fairfield county for the next two years in the general assembly. Messrs Burley, Pagan, Broom and Scruggs will continue in their present offices. Capt. T. M. Jordan succeeds Mr. D. L. Stevenson as county superintendent of education, the latter not being a candidate.

Of the state ticket the tabulated return is printed only for U. S. senator, governor and attorney general. From this it can be seen that one out of every four voters in the county scratched the name of Senator Tillman, that Ansel had a good lead for governor and that Ragsdale was nearly a hundred votes ahead of Lyon for attorney general. The votes for the other state officers were as follows:

Lieutenant Governor: McLeod 1264.
Secretary of State: McCown 488, Moorison 365, Ragin 317.
Comptroller General: Jones 815, Walker 392.
Treasurer: R. H. Jennings 1261.
Adjutant and Inspector General: Boyd 886, Haskell 372.
Superintendent of Education: Martin 1255.
Railroad Commissioner: Cansler 625, Sellers 25, Sullivan 182, Summersett 256, Wharton, 152.

Primaries Carelessly Conducted.

There is too much carelessness in the conduct of the primary elections, in Fairfield county at least. Not the proper care is used in the sending out of the tickets and the boxes. The same is true also in their return. For instance in the primary of last week two boxes were not in on the day the official count was made. The phone returns for one of the boxes were taken and, while in this instance it could not affect the returns, it was a dangerous precedent. Another box was not in and so not counted. Only a few members of the executive committee were present and the place of others had to be filled. As the primary election is the whole thing in this state it is wholly necessary that it be conducted in strict conformity with the law and that every precaution be taken against any and all irregularities. When the executive committee meets on Thursday the 13th let there be a full attendance and let every box be on hand so that a final and official count may be made.

Jennings Items.

Notwithstanding the fact that it has been raining almost constantly during the past month cotton is opening fast. Of course it has been much injured. Most of the corn in this section is very good.

Misses V. C. and Lula Trapp entertained a number of their friends and also "The Ladies' Working Society" of Crooked Run church Thursday afternoon, the 30th inst. The amount of eleven dollars and thirty cents was contributed to "The Indigent Ministers Fund." Mrs. Watson of Orangeburg, Misses Janie and Leola Howell of Bookman, Misses Jem and Addie Hinnant of Ridgeway, Miss Adelaide Brooks of Rion, also Messrs Carl Hinnant, Waties Howell and Harold Brooks were among the guests.

Mrs. Watson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. H. Leitner, returned home yesterday.

Misses Jem and Addie Hinnant who have been visiting their cousins, have returned to Ridgeway.

Rev. M. A. Connors, who has been spending some time with friends, has returned to Summerton, preached twice at Crooked Run church. These sermons were greatly enjoyed by all who heard them. We are, always delighted to have Bro. Connors with us, and wish that his visits could be more frequent. T.

Jennings, Sept. 3, 1906.

SHELLS! SHELLS!—Big lot of U. M. C. Shells just in. Right prices in quantity. T. M. Haynes.

STOVES! STOVES!—A large shipment of cooking stoves daily expected. Be sure to see me before buying a stove. T. M. Haynes.

Candidates' Expenses.

In accordance with the recent law requiring each candidate to file with the clerk of court an itemized statement of his campaign expenses, each of the candidates for office complied with the law. The following figures show what it cost each of the candidates in Fairfield to make the race:

A. H. Brice.....$22 82
T. S. Brice.....2 80
W. W. Dixon.....18 86
C. H. Leitner.....12 05

A Card of Thanks.

To the Democratic Voters of Fairfield County:

I take this means of expressing my sincere thanks to the many voters of Fairfield County who cast their ballots for me as Governor of South Carolina on the 28th ult. I feel very grateful for this manifestation of their confidence in me, and am truly grateful to the people all over the State for the splendid vote given me in the first race.

I now ask that all my friends turn out on the 11th of September and let us roll up a large majority, and I respectfully solicit the solid vote of your county, promising to give to the office my undivided time and best ability.

Very respectfully,
M. F. Ansel.
Greenville, S. C.

No Bond Issue.

The proposition to vote $40,000 in bonds for the payment of the present indebtedness of Fairfield county and for putting the said county on a cash basis was voted down in the special election held last Tuesday by a vote of 3 to 1. The table below shows the vote of all the boxes with the exception of Feasterville, which box was not in on Tuesday, the day the official count was made:

	For	Against
Albion.....	7	23
Bear Creek.....	7	15
Centerville.....	9	24
Greenbrier.....	4	33
Gladness Grove.....	0	26
Blythewood.....	6	79
Monticello.....	13	75
Longtown.....	12	47
Jenkinsville.....	8	13
Jackson Creek.....	4	27
Ridgeway.....	6	92
Winnsboro.....	79	29
Feasterville.....	2	42
Horeb.....	2	42
Woodward.....	29	16
	186	541

Since the above was put in type, the Feasterville vote has been counted by the commissioners of election at an adjourned meeting and is 36 for the bonds and 61 against. So the bonds lost by a vote of 602 to 222.

OBITUARY.

Funeral Obsequies of Mrs. Mary E. Boyce.

A recent issue of this paper chronicled the death of Mrs. Mary E. Boyce, at Alexandria, Va., on August 2nd. The interment took place at the Episcopal cemetery here on Sunday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock, preliminary services at the Episcopal church being conducted by Rev. Dr. S. A. Wallis, who accompanied the remains from Alexandria.

Although the deceased spent most of her life in a distant State, she was sincerely loved and widely known to this generation in her native county, by the glorious traditions of her graces and virtues.

The following gentlemen acted as pall-bearers:

Active—J. W. Seigler, T. K. Elliott, T. H. Ketchin, W. R. Rabb, W. G. Jordan, Barnwell Walker, J. G. McCants.

Honorary—R. N. McMaster, H. A. Gaillard, A. S. Douglass, J. C. Caldwell.

TOOLS for carpenters and Tools for the farm—Hammers, Saws, Picks, Axes, Shovels, etc.—all at T. M. Haynes'.
